Project Title: "Teen Language, Style and Ethnic Identity"

Applicant: Lisa Johnson

The project focuses on the Pacific Island population and how they use linguistic and other behavior resources to construct identity in the context of a public high school. Parent permission is required and the study will consist of surveys given to parents and students outside of school time.

The project has been approved by the District Research Review Committee. The applicant has been directed to contact you to discuss the extent of the project and to obtain your permission to conduct the study at your school.
