Learning Support and Practice

For information on how English Language Proficiency assessments differ from English Language Arts assessments, please view the following video:

Quick Facts: Reading

- Approximately 60 minutes (this includes the convening students, distributing materials, practice items, and scored items. Tier B/C will take longer than Tier A. Visit your member/state page of the WIDA website (https://wida.wisc.edu) for any additional state and district test timing guidance that applies to your students).

- Completely computer-delivered.

- Equipment needed: desktop, laptop, or tablet; headphones.

- Materials needed: Online Test Administration Manual, Test Administrator Script, Student Test Tickets, and Student Test Roster.

- Make sure the Internet connection is functioning on the devices used to administer the test.

- Follow the Test Administrator Script exactly.

- Encourage students to ask questions before the Reading Test begins.

- Test Administrator should circulate the room to monitor students' progress.

- After the test has ended, ensure that every student has turned in his or her Test Ticket.
